

Certain Corrosion-Resistant Carbon Steel Flat Products, and Certain Cut-to-Length Carbon Steel Plate from France, 58 FR 37125 (1993)(Comment 30); the Department does not concern itself with determining which of the corporate entities related to the respondent actually incurs the cost of financing.

Sales to Related Parties

Comment 9: The petitioners state that the Department failed to exclude sales to related parties from home market sales, or test such sales for arm's-length pricing. In rebuttal, the respondent states that all sales between related parties are at arm's length, but that, in any case, excluding related-party sales will not significantly affect sales matching.

Department's Position: We agree with the petitioners and have included an arm's-length test in our analysis. We compared prices net of difference-in-merchandise adjustments, movement expenses, early payment discounts, commissions and after-sale rebates. The results of that test indicate that a substantial number of sales to affiliates were at lower prices than those to unrelated parties. In accordance with 19 CFR 353.45(a), we have therefore excluded those sales to related parties that were not at arm's length, and have used home market sales by Wieland to unrelated customers, and home market sales to related parties that were at arm's length, as the basis for FMV.

Clerical and Programming Errors

Comment 10: The respondent points out that adjustments for different alloys were not converted to pounds.

Department's Position: We agree with the respondent and have converted the adjustments for different alloys to pounds.

Comment 11: The petitioners state, and Wieland agrees, that for U.S. sales, the Department neglected to adjust the difference-in-merchandise data for physical characteristics and for different alloys by the VAT rate.

Department Position: We agree with the petitioners and have adjusted these data by the VAT rate.

Final Results of Review

As a result of our analysis of the comments received, we determine that the following margin exists for Wieland:

Manufacturer/exporter	Period	Percent margin
Wieland-Werke AG	3/1/93– 2/28/94	¹ 0.495

¹ We have not rounded this result to two places, as is our usual practice, since doing so would indicate a margin above de minimis, where the actual margin is de minimis.

Individual differences between the USP and FMV may vary from the above percentage. The Department shall instruct the U.S. Customs Service to assess antidumping duties on all appropriate entries.

Furthermore, the following deposit requirements will be effective for all shipments of subject merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after the publication date of these final results, as provided for by section 751(a)(1) of the Act.

(1) Because the rate for Wieland is de minimis, the Department shall not require cash deposits on shipments from Wieland;

(2) For previously reviewed or investigated companies not listed above, the cash deposit rate will continue to be the company-specific rate published for the most recent period;

(3) If the exporter is not a firm covered in this review, a prior review, or the original less-than-fair-value (LTFV) investigation, but the manufacturer is, the cash deposit rate will be the rate established for the most recent period for the manufacturer of the merchandise; and

(4) If neither the exporter nor the manufacturer is a firm covered in this or any previous review conducted by the Department, the cash deposit rate will be 8.87 percent, the "all others" rate established in the LTFV investigation.

This notice also serves as a final reminder to importers of their responsibility under 19 CFR 353.26 to file a certificate regarding the reimbursement of antidumping duties prior to liquidation of the relevant entries during the review period. Failure to comply with this requirement could result in the Secretary's presumption that reimbursement of antidumping duties occurred and the subsequent assessment of double antidumping duties.

This notice also serves as a reminder to parties subject to administrative protective order (APOs) of their responsibility concerning the disposition of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 353.34(d). Timely written notification of the return/destruction of APO materials or conversion to judicial protective order is hereby requested.

Failure to comply with the regulations and terms of an APO is a violation which is subject to sanction. This administrative review and this notice are in accordance with section 751(a)(1) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1675(a)(1)) and 19 CFR 353.22.

Amended Final Antidumping Duty Determination and Order; Furfuryl Alcohol From Thailand

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice.

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 25, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: John Brinkmann or Greg Thompson, Office of Antidumping Investigations, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482–5288 or (202) 482–3003, respectively.

Amended Final Determination

We presented counsel for the respondent, Indo-Rama Chemicals Ltd. (Thailand) (IRCT), and counsel for the petitioner, QO Chemicals, with the calculations and disclosure materials concerning the final determination on May 4, and 8, 1995, respectively.

The petitioner filed a timely submission alleging a ministerial error in the Department of Commerce's (Department) final determination calculations. On May 12, 1995, the petitioner alleged that the Department incorrectly calculated the number of credit days in the home market by taking the difference from the sale date to the payment date. (For specific details of these allegations and our analysis thereof, see Memorandum from the Easton Team to Barbara R. Stafford dated May 25, 1995).

We have reviewed the petitioner's allegation and agree that we erred in calculating the number of days for the home-market credit expense. In accordance with 19 CFR 353.28, we have corrected the calculations for the final determination. The final dumping margin for IRCT and "All Others" has been amended from 5.49 to 7.82 percent.

Scope of Order

The merchandise covered by this order is furfuryl alcohol (C₄H₅OCH₂OH). Furfuryl alcohol is a primary alcohol, and is colorless or pale yellow in appearance. It is used in the manufacture of resins and as a wetting agent and solvent for coating resins, nitrocellulose, cellulose acetate, and other soluble dyes.

The product subject to this order is classifiable under subheading 2932.13.00 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). Although the HTSUS subheading is provided for convenience and customs purposes, our written description of the scope of this proceeding is dispositive.

Antidumping Duty Order

On July 18, 1995, in accordance with section 735(d) of the Act, the U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC) notified the Department that imports of furfuryl alcohol from Thailand materially injure a U.S. industry. Therefore, in accordance with section 736 of the Act, the Department will direct United States Customs officers to assess, upon further advice by the administering authority pursuant to section 736(a)(1) of the Act, antidumping duties equal to the amount by which the foreign market value of the merchandise exceeds the United States price for all entries of furfuryl alcohol from Thailand. These antidumping duties will be assessed on all unliquidated entries of furfuryl alcohol from Thailand entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after May 8, 1995, the date on which the Department published its final determination notice in the Federal Register (60 FR 22557).

On or after the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register, U.S. Customs officers must require, at the same time as importers would normally deposit estimated duties, the following cash deposits for the subject merchandise:

Manufacturer/producer/exporter	Weighted-average margin percentage
Indo-Rama Chemicals Ltd. (Thailand)	7.82
All Others	7.82

This notice constitutes the antidumping duty order with respect to furfuryl alcohol from Thailand, pursuant to section 736(a) of the Act. Interested parties may contact the Central Records Unit, Room B-099 of the Main Commerce Building, for copies of an updated list of antidumping duty orders currently in effect.

This order is published in accordance with section 736(a) of the Act and 19 CFR 353.21.

Dated: July 19, 1995.

Paul L. Joffe,

Acting Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.
